God's anointing on your life doesn't override your ability to exercise free will. Even the anointed have moments of humanity and God loves you in spite of it...

Life Group Questions

1. What is one thing you've learned from failing at something? Was suffering that failure worth the knowledge and wisdom you gained? Why or why not?
2. During the message, we learned that, "It's easy to trust God when we have nothing to trust him with and nothing to trust him for." Do you agree? Why or why not?
3. What is one area of life in which you are tempted to rely on your own talents, skills, and ingenuity rather than on God? What stands in the way of you relying on your heavenly Father in that area?
4. Read Matthew 11:28–29. What burden are you carrying right now? What is one thing you can do to find rest in God? How can this group support you?
